Instructor: Dick Target, On Target Consultants

1:00pm -5:00pm Productive Machine Measurement: Benchmarking & Buy-in Training Course (Day 1)

Instructor: Dr Scott Ellis. Working Well, LLC

What you measure is what you get. Follow the data to greater speed, faster set-up, and better quality. Today's workforce is most productive and engaged when they are trained, equipped, and receive consistent helpful feedback. This course provides the tools and understanding to measure the right things and to communicate them for peak team member engagement. Key production performance measures will be practiced. Methods of building buy-in will be demonstrated with multiple process improvement tools. Participants work with a machine crew on real time set up reduction process. You will leave with tools for process improvement and communication to gain speed of set-up and production with greater quality.
